

Big6 Test

- 1) Which step of the Big6 allows you to make sure you know exactly what you need to do?
- a) Task Definition
  - b) Information Seeking Strategies
  - c) Location and Access
  - d) Use of Information
  - e) Synthesis
  - f) Evaluation

2) Use of Information is where you create your new product.

- a) True
- b) False

3) Evaluation means evaluating both the _____ and the _____.

4) Give an example of something that would be done in the Location and access step.

---

---

---

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 5) _____ Use of Information              | a) Creating a new product                                  |
| 6) _____ Synthesis                       | b) Finding information source and using them appropriately |
| 7) _____ Task Definition                 | c) Determine final product and questions to answer         |
| 8) _____ Location and Access             | d) Taking Notes  |
| 9) _____ Evaluation                      | e) Comparing the product to a rubric                       |
| 10) _____ Information Seeking Strategies | f) Determining the best sources (brainstorming)            |

11) Joe is using the index of a book to determine if it contains info on shark habitats. What step is he using?

- a) Task Definition
- b) Information Seeking Strategies
- c) Location and Access

12) The rough draft is created during the Use of Information step.

- a) True
- b) False

13) A list of sources is created in the Information Seeking Strategies step.

- a) True
- b) False

14) After completing the final product what must students do?

---

---

---

15) Sam was evaluating his process. He realized he had to go to the computer repeatedly to look for sources while creating his final product. What step did he likely neglect?

- a) Location and Access
- b) Information Seeking Strategies
- c) Task Definition